

Milenkovic Tanja

Tanja graduated in double M.Sc. international business in Maastricht. Already during her studies she successfully completed several internships and student jobs in public relations, marketing & sales and business development. Since 2015 Tanja is working as junior consultant at Detecon International GmbH. Her qualifications are market, competitive and customer analysis as well as growth and marketing strategies. Customer relationship management and e-commerce. Recent projects she participated in were communication for HR digital & innovation and corporate communication: “culture of sharing”.