

Terry Whitaker

Regional Director, Client Service
BlessingWhite

Terry Whitaker's mission is to help more people truly thrive at work. She works with courageous companies that are ready to take bold actions to develop

- inspiring leaders
- irresistible cultures
- and impassioned workforces.

With a history of working with corporate giants like Nestle and Disney, Terry brings expertise in leadership development combined with a personal relatability that has allowed her to reach thousands of individuals and help them enhance their leadership style.

Terry holds a BS in Business Administration from Villanova University and is a certified professional coach and a certified BlessingWhite facilitator.