

About the speaker

Imai Jen-La Plante analyzes media data for diplomatic purposes at Presence Switzerland, a unit of the Swiss government, and applies technology to diverse business challenges as Chief Innovation Officer at Berney Associés. She lived for four years in Tokyo, Japan, where she trained computers – and a few humans – to turn data into better business decisions. Previously she earned a Ph.D. in physics from the University of Chicago, where she was awarded the Yodh Prize for outstanding experimental work. She contributed to the discovery of the Higgs Boson as a researcher at the European Center for Nuclear Research (CERN) in Geneva, Switzerland.
