

Florian Conradi

Project Manager, Transformation HR

EnBW Energie Baden-Württemberg AG

Florian Conradi is mechanical engineer by training. After university he started at R&D at Bosch and changed 2013 to ENBW being a trainee. He worked there being responsible for HR tasks and 2015 he won the HR Next Generation Award. Today Florian is a passionate project lead for transformation projects at HR. He is responsible for establishing a matrix organization within HR, leaving the hierarchical structure behind.