

Caroline Rivett, Global Security & Privacy Lead for Life Sciences, KPMG

Caroline leads KPMG's global Cyber Security and Privacy team in Life Sciences. She has over twenty years' experience in technology and risk and served as a Chair of the Audit Committee and Board member in healthcare for eight years.

Prior to joining KPMG she co-founded a company which analysed medical data for insurers and put in place secure processes around global movement of sensitive personal data.