

Christina K. Isacson, Ph.D.
VP, Head of BD, Magenta Therapeutics

Christina has over 12 years of business, strategy and company creation experience. At Magenta Therapeutics, she is responsible for the Company's business and intellectual property strategies, and the establishment and management of partnerships. Christina was a key member of the Magenta founding team from Third Rock Ventures, whom she joined as a Principal in 2013 to lead the partner development team, and to focus on new company formation. While at Third Rock Ventures, Christina was Interim Head of Business Development for Edimer Pharmaceuticals, and she was part of the founding management team for Decibel Therapeutics. Prior to joining Third Rock Ventures, she was a senior member of the business development team at Ironwood Pharmaceuticals, where she established and managed in-licensing efforts. Prior to Ironwood, she formed several early-stage companies while part of the Technology Development Fund at Boston University and during her time at Accelerator Corp in Seattle. Christina holds a B.S. in Biology from McGill University and a Ph.D. in Neuroscience from Tufts University School of Medicine.