

June Komar
Corporate Executive Vice President of Strategy and Administration

June Komar was named corporate executive vice president of strategy and administration in 2010, after serving as senior vice president, strategic planning and business development since 2002, and as vice president since 1997.

In her role, Komar oversees strategic planning, government and community relations and information services. She also has executive oversight for Scripps corporate services administration.

Prior to coming to Scripps in 1997, Komar served as director of strategic planning at Mercy Healthcare. Before that, she served for seven years as deputy chief administrative officer for the County of San Diego and as chief operating officer and interim CEO of the County of Washtenaw, Michigan.

Komar received a Bachelor of Arts from Ohio State University and attended graduate school at the University of Michigan.
