

Todd Rupp
Regional Manager Key Accounts
Pfizer Internal Medicine

Todd has 20 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry. During this time, Todd has worked for two of the largest healthcare companies in the world, Johnson and Johnson and Pfizer Inc.

Todd has held multiple leadership positions across a variety of business functions including account management, sales, training and development and marketing. During his tenure he has received multiple awards for his work leading teams to achieve top performance and has been recognized for his ability to lead cross functional projects and strategies to accelerate brand performance across the US market. Todd has been fortunate to work with many talented colleagues throughout his career and has mentored and helped to promote new leaders in a variety of roles.