

Matt Wingham Bio

Matt Wingham is the Director of eCommerce, Medical Products and Services at Cardinal Health. With over 20 years of digital marketing and eCommerce experience, he is passionate about creating digital experiences that help customers achieve their goals. Matt has most recently led the redesign of a new eCommerce experience for Cardinal Health's medical customers called Cardinal Health Market. Prior to joining Cardinal Health, Matt led technology teams at Resource/Ammirati (now IBM iX) and Deloitte Consulting. When he is not working, Matt spends time with his family and friends and yearns for the day the Cleveland Browns are relevant again.
